WHAT DO THE WOMEN OF PORTSMOUTH THINK OF SUFFRAGE, WILL THEY VOTE?

Are the women of Portsmouth going to vote when "Women's Suffrage becomes a reality?"

Are the women here of the window-smashing, banner carrying, police-defying, prison-going, hunger-striking brand, or are they just every-day, home-loving, home-making women, who see in the ballot an opportunity to make the city, the state and the nation a better place in which to live and to bring up their children? A Times reporter has spent some of her time the past week talking to the women of the city, and their views on "the vote" and what the reporter found them doing, etc., will be of interest not only to the women but the men and prospective voters. Don't miss this feature in Sunday's Times.

CARPENTER HURT IN 20 FOOT FALL

H. G. Geibel, carpenter, 1734 Eleventh street sustained cuts on the forehead and injuries to his left shoulder, left arm and back Friday afternoon when he fell at the old Tremper shoe factory on Sixth street, near Officers street.

Geibel and other workmen were engaged in razing the old building when he lost his balance and fell a distance of about 20 feet. He was removed to his home in Lynn's ambulance.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES NEW CHILDREN'S HOME PROPOSITION DOES NOT HAVE TO BE VOTED ON

Prosecuting Attorney Sheppard, W. W. Baur, John Dais and Architect Arthur DeVoss returned home from Columbus Friday night, to which city they had gone in order to hold a conference with the Attorney General of the state in regard to the new Children's Home situation.

Prosecutor Sheppard's view of the statutes was that no action could be taken without first obtaining the sanction of the people at a special or general election, and this was borne out by the general laws. Attorney General DeVoss, however, referred his callers to a special statute in charitable institutions, by which where a county building is sold, the proceeds of same may be used, without a vote, for erecting a new building, of the same character, either on the old or a new site.

Under this statute, former Attorney General Turner had ruled to the then prosecuting attorney, Mr. Mickelthwait, that the county could go ahead, without resorting to a vote. His opinion was on file at Columbus and a copy was furnished Mr. Sheppard. As an emergency proposition, it is probable that the county commissioners would have been allowed to proceed anyway, the attorney general holding that in such cases as that obtaining in Scioto, some latitude might be allowed under emergency clauses.

The Home Building Commission will now proceed to approve plans and advertise for bids for construction of the new Home. Bonds for additional money needed will be submitted to voters at the primary in August, so that there will be no delay in making the building to completion. There will be a meeting of the Building Commission next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

To Conduct Bible Study

Rev. H. E. French will conduct a Bible study Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Russell. The subject to be discussed will be "The Hand of God in the History of Nations" (the title and Fall of the Pagan). A most convincing truth will be brought out concerning Roman Catholicism at the afternoon meeting.

Services On West Side

Services will be held at Morris chapel on the West Side Sunday. Sabbath school will be conducted at two o'clock in the afternoon followed by preaching service which will begin at 7:30 o'clock with Rev. C. P. Brown in charge of the services.

Task for Mamma.

Ben was visiting his aunt, who so far forgot herself as to use a "swear word". The youngster was horrified, and upon arriving home he began to tell his grandfather about the occurrence. When he reached the place in his story where the "swear" had to be repeated he stopped and said apologetically: "Mother, won't you say it just once so grandpa can hear how awful Aunt Sue sounded?"

Goodrich's More Mileage Proclamation

Be it known to every automobile owner and driver in the United States—to Goodrich Dealers—that Goodrich Safety Treads stand ready to deliver 6,000 miles, and Silvertown Cords 8,000, under proper usage.

That is, every SAFETY TREAD in use, and in a Goodrich Dealer's store, is underwritten to be adjusted at 6,000 miles—and every SILVERTOWN CORD at 8,000 miles.

The new adjustment is based upon what Goodrich knows its tires will do, and Goodrich knows from miles and miles of road-testing that Goodrich Tires are the strongest, the best, the rubber industry has produced.

They are so good that Goodrich increases its adjustment mileage to show its patrons they cannot afford not to share in their matchless service and security.

FRENCH GENERAL VISITS THE GRAVE OF QUENTIN ROOSEVELT

General Berthoin kneeling at the grave of Quentin Roosevelt.

This photograph, which has just reached the United States, shows
General Berthoin of the French army paying tribute at the grave of Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt. On Mother's day the general, accompanied by 180 to 1700, were followed by slight further gains and then something of a reaction.

the grave of Lieutenant Roosevelt, aviation corps, U. S. A., in the name of the mothers of America.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, June 14—Liquidation of speculative accounts and offerings
by professional traders were the dominant factors in initial dealings on the stock exchange today. Several of the stocks which figured conspicuously in yesterday's drop lost a point or more while a few others reflected temporary support, notably General Motors and Mexican Petroleum. U. S. Steel sold off 5-8 to 104 3-4; but the independent steels suffered greater declines. Secondary prices were somewhat better in some instances, but buying operations were conducted with caution.

Withholding of certain of the motor and rubber issues, together with a rally of a point in U. S. Steel, infused momentary strength into the trading on the stock exchange today after an opening display of weakness. Buying for both accounts was encouraged by belief in some quarters that the week's liquidation had improved the technical condition and that a rally was due.
Later, selling of oils, shippings, U. S.
Alcohol and motors, including a 7 point fall in General Motors, undermining the list again. In the final dealings the copper shares were run up sharply.
The closing was irregular.

There Are Reasons For Optimism

It is still too early to predict exactly what business conditions will obtain as a result of Peace. New problems are sure to come up, but there are also substantial reasons for optimism.
Our suggestion to you is: Build up a 4 per cent. Savings Account in THE ROYAL and you will then be ready with the necessary funds which you may need either in meeting problems or in taking advantage of opportunities resulting from conditions of the NEW ERA.

Another Winter of Starvation.
The wheat of the Crimea is not enough to allay the famine. The grain of the Crimea will only keep a smallish current of trade going, and so the Crimea must be made with the Chechki this summer or in the autumn to relieve the winter's starvation. Civilization cannot play politics with women and children are starving, even though we did play politics this winter with famine sitting at the table while we played politics. But then the famine was not as much as now. One hears still were fit with the blood lust of war. It will be another winter around the table this autumn.

Famine Abroad in the World
We in America made great use of the moral position of the Allies during the war. Right was with us, wrong was with the Germans. Our advantages were tremendous. It was this advantage which gave us the victory; for our adversaries melted away so much before our guns, as they melted before our arguments which we dropped over the lines and brought on the revolution that took the mol-

Now famine is still about us in the valleys of the mountains, and in the hills. It must rage for another year, and perhaps another. It will take all the sacrifice of zealous people all over the world to keep starvation from killing millions, and plague following for years to come. The famine of the earth is not, therefore, important to us. We should have our house in order so that it is not necessary that every man shall be able to say to his people, "We have no food, and our curse of pestilence is abroad in the land." We should have our hearts full of love, and our eyes clear to see the sinners of the world, and to slumber, but the universal food shortage of the guilty? Surely there is another way to enforce a peace. And if the peace is unjust, it has received in its infancy the will that it should be destroyed. It will last but a few years. We should pay, for example,

Hot Race Expected For City Offices

The entry lists have closed and the candidates that will contest for the various municipal offices in the August primaries are off to the races. The time limit for filing nominating petitions expired Friday at midnight.

On the Republican side there will be a number of contests leading off with Charles W. Wilson, and Dr. William J. Hayes, both of whom aspire to be the chief executive of the city, while there is a three-corner fight on for Lou Zacher's job in the auditor's office between W. L. R. Jack, Donald N. Maguet and Earl Chandler, while no less than six men certified in as candidates for the three seats in council to be elected at-large as follows: James E. Starlin, Emory P. Ricker, George M. Osborn, Howard K. Moore, Howard Rayner and Charles Schirrmann.

Of the ward councilmen, Al H. Weghorst will have an opponent in the first ward, Emil Helt, while Alva J. Chabot and Charles E. Monk will contest for the seat in council from the second and James G. Bauer, William Keller and Harold Rice will fight for the councilman's job in the third. Dr. Frank Bennett will have no opposition for the nomination in the fourth for council.

Attorney William R. Spague and Attorney Alex O. Woodrow will fight it out for the nomination for Municipal Judge, while George W. Vandevogt was named for vice mayor with out opposition, and Solicitor S. Anselm Skelton and Treasurer A. J. Fuller will have no opposition for their second terms.

The Democrats named a strong ticket with William N. Gableman, former city auditor, as their standard-bearer, and the entire line-up will have no opposition in the primary.

The candidates that will go to the wire follow:

BERNHARDT'S LATEST WORK IS BUST OF ROSTAND, FAMOUS FRENCH DRAMATIST

Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt as she looks today and the bust of Rostand which she has just completed.

Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt, the indefatigable French actress who is now in her seventy-sixth year, has just completed a bust of Edmond Rostand. Her work was done as a labor of love for the famous French dramatist and academician. Bernhardt has done much to immortalize the works of her famous countryman.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Lucy Hall.
Lucy Dean, daughter of Benjamin and Ruth Dean, pioneer settlers of Scioto county, was born near the narrow back of Bealeville, October 10, 1821, and died at Pine Creek Landing June 13, 1919, in her 98th year.

She was twice married. Her first husband, Andrew Fullerton, brother of J. H. Fullerton, of Fullerton, Ky., died leaving her with two small children. The older, Wm. McF. Fullerton was killed in the Civil War. The other, James B. Fullerton, resides in Portsmouth. Her second husband was Horace T. Hall, in 1860. To them were born three children, Mrs. Ruth Roberts, Mrs. Louella Smith and Horace M. Hall. Her four surviving children were all present with her during her last illness.

Her health had been good until one month before her death, which resulted from several concurring ailments. She displayed a great reserve of vitality in her resistance to the progress of these ailments, and to the last moments of her life her mind was clear and dominant. To the time of this illness her hair was still dark with the remaining color of youth, and her face quite wrinkled.

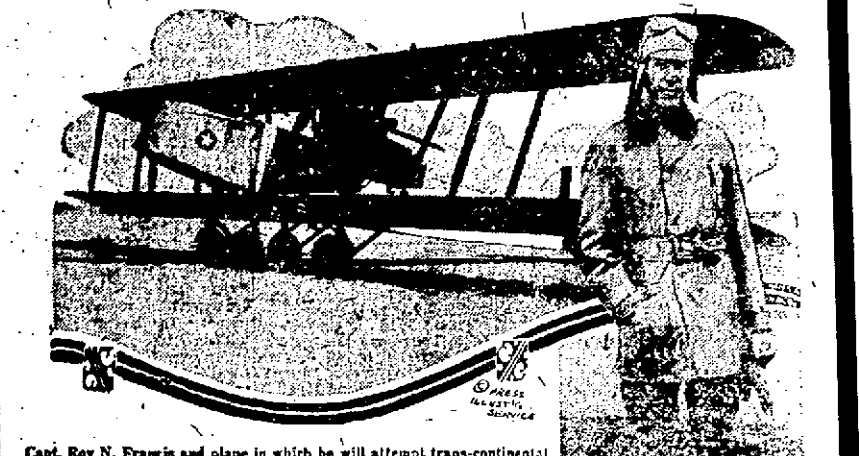

She possessed a rare store of memories of people and things of the years long past. As a young girl she was a member of the congregation and Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church, Portsmouth, and Elder Braden, Sunday School Superintendent, Osborn, and Librarian Martin R. Gilbert, and others of 1835-6 remained as vividly present to her as the acquaintances of yesterday. She saw the advent of many of the historic families of Portsmouth, which after leaving their impress upon the life of the community have almost vanished from public memory. The greater part of her life was spent at Wheelersburg, with a short residence in New Mexico, Illinois and New Jersey.

She was not a woman of great accomplishments or advanced education, but developed a keen appreciation of the range of knowledge and the applications of mind and heart to the vital concerns of life. She was timid but independent, tender without the display of emotionality, and her character in her humble sphere was her constant effort to fulfill every duty. Her early religious training showed its impress in later years, but she dated the beginning of her religious life from about 1848 when she became a member of the church of her father and mother, Porter Free Will Baptist, at Waite.

Her conversion was rapid, following the deepest conviction of sin, and the joy of her experience was the realization that she was "accepted in the beloved, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace." For seventy years she has maintained a good profession, and fallen on sleep. Next to her New Testament she cherished a book "The Story of Our History," and during her last illness the lines of old Isaac Watts read to her were responded to from memory and reflected her spirit as the breath of heaven. She testified that the promises of God were unchangeably fixed in her mind.

Her body will lie in the Wheelersburg cemetery, beside those of three sisters, Mrs. Helene Hale Ford, Mrs. Cynthia Barr and Bulama Dean, all long since deceased.

U. S. ARMY AVIATOR, IN LONG FLIGHT ACROSS CONTINENT, WILL BLAZE TRAIL FOR AIR ARGOSIES OF TOMORROW

Capt. Roy N. Francis and plane in which he will attempt trans-continental flight.

Starting probably Monday, the war department plans a one-stop flight in a Martin bomber from Minneola, L. I., to San Francisco. It is proposed to send the bomber 2,750 miles in thirty-two flying hours, with only one stop, which will be at North Platte, Neb., 1,502 miles from the starting point. Capt. Roy N. Francis and Lieut. Edmund A. Glum will be the pilots and two or three mechanics will constitute the crew.

"The flight across the continent presages an era of civil aerial transport," says a U. S. air service announcement. "It demonstrates that trips from coast to coast are both practicable and safe, and the prediction is consequently made that within a few years regular freight and passenger service will be maintained along the route laid out by Captain Francis and his party."

BACK YARD ROW BETWEEN WOMEN AIRED IN COURT; BOTH DISMISSED

Mrs. Paul Morgan-Brammer and Mrs. Amanda Smallwood, neighbors on Waller street, near Teath street, were before Mayor Kays in police court this morning on charges of disorderly conduct.

The evidence showed that the two women became involved in a wordy war yesterday and in which some pretty strong language was used over the back yard fence. The police took a hand and quelled the disturbance and then followed the complaint of Mrs. Brammer and counter charges by Mrs. Smallwood. After hearing from both sides the court dismissed the defendants with some good advice and a warning to stop fussing over the garden wall.

Spiders To Play Stars

From all indications when the Spiders and Rosemont Stars took up in the third and deciding game of the series between these fast teams Sunday afternoon on the Rosemont diamond the far will try for each club will present its strongest front in an effort to take the "rubber."

Each team has now won a game and by an odd coincidence both games were won by the same score, 4 to 2, although the Spiders were forced to go 13 innings to capture their game.

Manager Fred Eberfeldt will send his best to the mound tomorrow to do the fighting for his tribe and he expects his star hurler to bring home the bacon. Opposed to him will be Look-abong on the hill with Monk behind the bat.

The South Webster team was scheduled to play at Rosemont Sunday but at the last minute cancelled the game.

Bicycle And Auto Crash, Rider Hurt

Will Burke, a 1720 Seventh street, sustained lacerations about the head and was badly shaken up Friday evening when he was struck by an automobile while riding his bicycle. Mr. Burke was assisted to the office of Dr. C. G. Sergeant, Ohio Hall, driving a Chevrolet touring car struck Mr. Burke, the accident happening at Eighth and Lincoln streets about eight o'clock last night. He was driving west on Seventh and turned south onto Lincoln. Burke was riding north on Lincoln.

When the heavy machine hit the wheel Burke was thrown on top of the radiator of the car while his wheel was smashed under the car. Burke was assisted to the office of Dr. C. G. Sergeant where his injuries were given attention.

Mrs. Rose Darach and daughter, Miss Merrill Darach of 125 Third street were passengers in the automobile. Miss Darach who just recently left Hempstead hospital was badly frightened.

In Race For Auditor

Donald N. Maguet, who is one of the three candidates who certified to the Board of Elections Friday night as an aspirant for the nomination of City Auditor on the Republican ticket, is employed as recorder at the White-River-Glenn plant.

Previous to securing employment there he was working at the Golly Shoe Co. He is married and the father of a little boy. Mr. Maguet entered the race for the nomination at the solicitation of a number of his friends. While he has always been an ardent Republican, this is the first time that he has sought any preference at the hands of his party. He is popular and well-qualified to fill the office he is now seeking.

W. G. WARDEN

Death at 7 o'clock Saturday morning claimed W. G. Warden, the final summons coming at his home, 117 Scioto street, after an extended illness. He was a sufferer from tuberculosis, and had been seriously ill for nine months.

Mr. Warden was born in Ripley, being a son of Albert and Ollie Warden. He was fifty-two years of age April last. The deceased was a carpenter and was considered one of the best workmen in this line in the city.

Just two weeks ago, Frank Warden, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Warden, was claimed by death. The beloved wife, Jennie Warden, and one son, Albert, aged five, survive to mourn the death of husband and father. Two brothers, John W. Warden and Henry Warden, and one sister, Miss Nellie Warden, of this city, survive. The deceased had a host of friends who will be sorry to learn of his death.

The funeral will be held from the home some time Monday.

John Rinner

Friends were shocked to learn Friday night that death had claimed John Rinner well known resident of 1617 Eleventh street, the final summons coming at his home at 5:30 o'clock after two days' illness. Although Mr. Rinner had been suffering with complications for six years his condition was not considered serious. He was working as usual this week and Thursday morning had to come home from his work at the Irvine Drew shoe factory. He grew worse from that time on until death claimed him.

The deceased would have been 52 years of age on July 13. He was a son of Fred and Christine Rinner and came to Portsmouth from Grahamsville, Jackson county about twenty-eight years ago. In 1891 he was married.

Michael Friel Funeral

The funeral service of the late Michael Friel were conducted from the Holy Redeemer church at 3 o'clock this morning by the Rev. J. E. McGulick. Interment was in Greencastle.

William Newland

William Newland, son of George and Mary Beekman Newland, was born near Peeble, Adams county, Ohio, December 6, 1853. Two brothers and one sister preceded him to the grave. His sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Vernon, and a brother, Jacob Newland, of Glencoe, Oklahoma, survive.

When William was a young man the family moved to Scioto county. He became familiar with several iron furnaces in Lawrence and Scioto counties where he was employed for many years.

On October 27, 1920, he was united in marriage to Susan Lewis. A little more than 25 years of happy wedded life followed, until on January 10, 1918, the faithful and loving wife went to join the two daughters who died in infancy.

The youngest son, Henry Lewis Newland, was among the first victims of the influenza epidemic in the fall of 1918. The two older sons, James A. Newland and George W. Newland, both with severe colds, children, and one great grandchild are left to mourn the loss of their parents and grand parents.

Husband and wife united with the church at Vernon in 1897. Each recalled faithful members of the church militant until called to the church triumphant.

The declining years of their life were spent on the farm except the last year and a half of the husband's

All Star Lineup Selected For Millbrook Game Sunday

Joe Brennan, Manager. Stillwell and Hubert, c. Hollins, Schultz, Meyers, p. Stalen, 2b. Barber, 3b. Doherty, ss. Valente, 1b. Burdell, cf. Kunkel, cf. Stewart, lf. Hendford, utility outfielder. Haupt, utility outfielder.

Everything is all set for the opening of "beautiful" Millbrook Park in a baseball way, Sunday afternoon, when the Portsmouth All Stars will meet the Third Battalion team of the 48th Infantry, Camp Sherman, beginning promptly at 3 o'clock.

At a meeting of the players at the Play House, last evening, William N. Gableman, who will be in complete charge of all games played at Millbrook Park this season, had a heart to heart talk with his players and informed them it was his intention to give the fans of Portsmouth the best ball possible. To this end he has not only selected the strongest possible line up in the city, but has placed Millbrook Park in the finest possible condition.

The grounds have been put into great shape under the supervision of Joe Allen, recognized as the King bee of ground keepers. The grand stand has been repaired and thoroughly cleaned from pit to press box and the fans who witness the opening game tomorrow will be privileged to see the struggle under the most favorable conditions.

Incidentally, the fans will have the satisfaction of rooting for one of the fastest teams that ever sailed under the flag of "Portsmouth." It is a team of speed and skill and there is not a weak spot in the line up. Stillwell and Hubert, the team will have a pair of receivers who will not only steady the pitchers, but who have whips that will wing the ball accurately and speedily around the base paths.

In Schultz, Hollins and Meyers the opposition will face a trio of hurlers who not only have plenty of "stuff" but who are bery and know how to pitch. The three twirlers can field and hit with the best of them. The infield is absolutely without a weak spot and full of pep and speed. The same condition applies with equal force to the outfield, with a couple of utility men promptly at 3 o'clock.

Germans To Get 2 Days To Sign Treaty Chinese Cabinet Quits; President May Also Resign

Germans May Get The Allies' Reply Monday

PARIS, Friday, June 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Confidence was expressed tonight by the British, French and American delegates to the peace conference that the reply to the German counter proposals will be completed and delivered to the Germans Monday, with a provision that the Germans will be given two days in which to answer. With three days of grace before the armistice is suspended, there will be a resumption of hostilities Saturday, June 21, if the Germans refuse to sign.

STAY IN POWER PROTEST
The indignation of the council of four to submit the revised German treaty to a plenary session of the conference before sending it to the Germans is, however, causing another protest from the small powers, which want "stern" rather than "gentle" methods. This may force the calling of another plenary session which would cause further delay. The small powers are dissatisfied with assurances that the changes made in the treaty are slight and many of the delegates are insisting on an opportunity to consider the treaty fully before it is presented to the council for approval.

OFFER PROTEST
PARIS, June 13.—(By the Associated Press)—The proposal that the five great powers undertake to guarantee the territorial limits of the victor states to custom through as established by the peace treaties in return for the acceptance by the latter of stipulations protecting the rights of racial, language and religious minorities has, it is understood, been submitted to the interested states by the council of four. The guarantee would be independent of general provisions for the maintenance of the territorial status quo in Article 10 of the covenant of the League of Nations, and provide the definite security which some European skeptics do not expect from the workings of the league.

NO DELIVERY UNTIL NEXT WEEK

PARIS, June 13.—(By the Associated Press)—The council of five continued the work of editing the revised peace treaty this morning. At the same time enabling Baron Makino, the Japanese representative, to acquaint himself with the document. The work is nearly completed and it is believed the treaty will go to the revision committee late tonight. It is said that it will be printed and ready for delivery to the Germans Monday or Tuesday.

It is the present plan of the council to resume consideration of the Austrian terms Monday. Representatives of Turkey will be received Tuesday.

If no other developments arise, President Wilson probably will make his trip to Brussels between Wednesday and the expiration of the German time limit. Some modifications were made by the council yesterday in the labor

Foch Sends Ultimatum To Germans

COBLENZ, Friday, June 13.—(By the Associated Press)—An ultimatum demanding the immediate continuation of the movement of Polish troops across Germany has been sent to the German government by Marshal Foch, according to dispatches received here from Spa.

Orders were issued at Berlin several days ago to hold up the Polish troop trains. One was held at Coblenz, another at Treves, two at Bims and eight in the interior of Germany. The transfer of Polish troops from France to Poland began about six weeks ago and was due to be completed on June 17.

A Berlin dispatch received on Friday night said that Matthias Erzberger, chairman of the German armistice commission at Spa, had written General Dugout, chief of the French mission in Berlin, declaring that Poland intended to distribute two divisions of General Haller's troops along the frontier. It was said that Erzberger had protested that this was opposed to the terms of the armistice and that unless Poland abandoned her purpose, Germany would be compelled to suspend the movement of the Polish army across Germany.

The existing labor situation in various countries, coupled with clerical German tactics, had resulted in this part of the treaty becoming one of the principal points of attack in the counter proposals. The situation caused a lengthy discussion, which resulted in certain modifications in the convention.

RAILROAD OPERATORS AID STRIKE

CHICAGO, June 13.—The commercial telegraphers' strike now in its fourth day, was given valuable assistance, according to union officials, through the order, effective today, to railroad telegraphers throughout the country to decline to handle messages from the Western Union and Postal Companies. Officials of the telegraph companies said refusal of railroad operators to handle commercial messages would not interfere materially with wire traffic, as only a small part of their business was handled at railroad offices.

Union officials asserted that more men were added to the ranks of the strikers during the last 24 hours, while the company officials claimed that "quite a number" who walked out have returned to work.

In connection with the proposed strike of more than 100,000 electrical workers called for next Monday, Charles P. Ford, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, today said:

"The lid comes off on Monday unless conference between representatives of the electrical workers and officials of the companies bring about a settlement. Twenty-eight settlements have been brought about in various parts of the country and more than 11,000 men and women will not be included in the strike call."

Gigantic Labor Demonstration In Washington

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Labor's protest against prohibition in so far as it applies to light wines and beer was brought before congress late today in a demonstration, participated in by a throng estimated by leaders to number 100,000 to 150,000 representatives and members of union organizations from this and scores of other cities throughout the country.

Led by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who with hundreds of other delegates from the national convention of the delegates were to assemble on the Union Station plaza and march to the capitol steps. The meeting was to open with a salute to the flag as a mark, it is understood, of the "anti-bolshevism and pro-American sentiment" of the workers.

Speakers by members of congress and by Mr. Gompers were to follow.

CHINESE FACING SERIOUS CRISIS

PEKING, June 11.—(By the Associated Press)—In consequence of difficulties created by the popular movement against pro-Japanese members of the government, the cabinet has resigned and President Hsu Shih Chang has also indicated his intention to quit office.

It is anticipated that parliament will decline to accept the president's resignation. This would amount virtually to a vote of confidence in the cabinet executive, which is needed to strengthen his hand in his fight against the militarists.

Strikes throughout the country continue. Railroad traffic is being impeded and the situation in China is awkward.

PICNIC TODAY

The first Presbyterian Sunday school picnic will be held this afternoon at Millbrook park. Special cars have been provided for the Sabbath school pupils, their parents and members of the congregation. All are invited to join in their annual outing of the church and school. In a free hitting and loosely played contest at the Selby team last evening, the Selby team led on by their prime pitcher, Manager Joe Brennan, easily distanced the N. & W. lads, the final count being 12 to 0, making a total of 30 runs in the space of seven innings. It was one of those old fashioned slugger matches with the Selbies using the bat as freely as they do their batons when making holes for the western team. They ran up a total of eleven hits, good for twenty bases and that was enough for them for one hot evening, inasmuch as it cannot be considered an over-exertion to travel around the super-heated base paths. The Selbies attended to three twirlers, knocking Horner and Hubert off the mound by an avalanche of hits that would break the heart of a sturdy brawler. The fact is, the Selbies did not make a very impressive showing in the opening round, when he was found for two hits and a couple of runs. He had a serious time of it in the fifth frame, but by this time the Selby team had the game on ice and it made little difference to him. He seems to be a little better than a half dozen runs. When it became necessary he put the ball where the N. & W. did not seem to fancy it and had no trouble in getting his opponents when necessary.

Such hitting has not been seen on the lot since the Industrial League was launched nearly two weeks ago. In order to give his disciples a taste of the real thing, Manager Brennan whaled out a double and triple, just to let the lads know that such a thing was possible. Selby's left fielder for the Selbies, was also some hitting kid, pulling out a triple and a couple of singles and incidentally scoring three runs, a record for the League so far. He did not have a thing to do in the sixth, but he was anxious to whang the ball far off, went and did likewise, pulling out a double and three runs to left and registering a couple of hits. In addition to pitching a fairly good game Spence drove out a triple batted to right and never stopped running until he had made the circuit, added and belted by a white chuck on the part of Lowry who made a vain attempt to catch Kearns scoring. A good loss and Spence would have been left at third.

The prettiest play of the game was pulled off by Ralph Mantel in center when he took a terrific drive from the bat of Kearns, who used to pole 'em as a member of the old River City team. Mantel took the ball as it was passing over his shoulder and it was as pretty a catch as will be seen on any league circuit. The work of Goodie and Stewart, shortstops, respectively, was a revelation to the fans, both lads pulling off plays that brought the fans to their feet. In fact, the infield work of the Selby team could not have been improved on, even though some weird stuff was pulled now and then. The work of Frank Keyser in left for the Railroaders was par excellence. He missed a hit from the bat of Stewart that he would have easily doctored had he not stopped in a shell hole just as he was going to close his hands with the ball. Our old friend John Weinberg caught the game in dead earnest and labored hard for victory, but John could not do it all and could not prevent the terrific onslaught of the victors, although he did his best to have the twirlers put the ball where the Selbies could not knock it out of the lot.

The Railroaders were the first to score, getting two in the first frame on hits by Goodie and F. Keyser, a sacrifice and walk, coupled with a couple of outs. They ran their count to five by adding three in the fifth, when hits by Goodie and P. Keyser and errors by Hillman and Bestwick showed three railroaders over the pan. One was made in the sixth on hits by Goodie Walls and Lowry. The former scored three hits in four attempts and declares he will always bat at the expense of Spence. That remains to be seen, however.

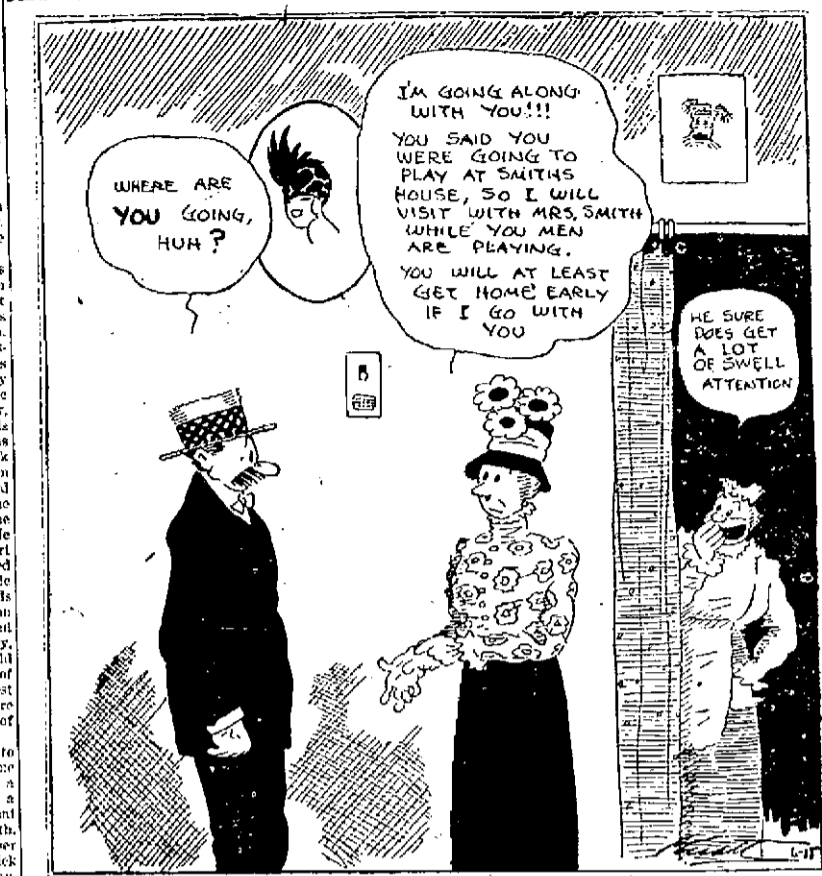

The Selby lads went right after things in the second and scored three runs. Kearns started the fracas with a two-ply shot to left and Spence walked. Hillman sacrificed very artistically, although it required first hitting to up him. Selby's chase the golden opportunity to whack out a triple clearing the bases.

The next inning saw the undoing of Horner and he was rescued by Hubert before the five was out, five large runs resulting. Hubert did fairly well until the sixth when he was sent home to recuperate. Stewart started with a triple and Brennan doubled, Kearns walked. Out went Hubert and in came Walts after Spence had peeled the back off the big gun in the right. Billman was tossed out by Walts, but Selby's single, Schaeffer walked but Walts got Collis and Bestwick on strikes. The score:

FRENCH ATHLETES IN TRAINING

PARIS, June 11—Evidently the American soldiers have taught the Frenchman how and why to take athletics seriously. Fully 250 French athletes, gathered from all over France and its provinces, are now quartered at the old Ecole Normal de Gymnastique et d'Escrime de Juville under going a period of intensive training for conditioning and perfecting the athletes has been worked up, based almost entirely on the training methods of American colleges and athletes. Nothing has ever before been attempted along these lines in France.

"GOWDY DAY" IN CINCINNATI SUNDAY

"Gowdy Day" will be celebrated in the Cincinnati ball yard when Boston plays there tomorrow and many local fans will attend the game. Hank Gowdy was the first ball player to respond to the colors and is in for a real reception when he steps upon the Cincinnati field tomorrow. Some historians has just learned that Hank at one time resided in the Queen City so this helps matters of course.

Everything is all set for the opening of "centennial" Millbrook Park in a grand way. Sunday afternoon, when the Portsmouth All Stars will match with the strongest possible line up in the city, but has placed Millbrook Park in the finest possible condition. The grounds have been put into great shape under the supervision of Joe Allen, recognized as the king bee of ground keepers. The grand stand has been repaired and thoroughly cleaned from pit to press box and the fans who witness the opening game tomorrow will be privileged to see the struggle under the most favorable conditions.

Incidentally, the fans will have the satisfaction of rooting for one of the fastest teams that ever sailed under the banner of "Portsmouth." It is a team of speed and skill and there is not a weak spot in the line up. In Stillwell and Hubert the team will have a pair of receivers who will not only steady the pitchers but who have the ability to win the ball accurately and speedily around the base paths. In Shultz, Collins and Meyers the opposition will face a trio of hurlers who not only have plenty of "stuff" but who are ready and know how to pitch. The three twirlers can field and hit with the best of them. The infield is absolutely without a weak spot and full of pep and speed. The same condition applies with equal force to the outfield, with a couple of utility men

THE STRIKE SETTLEMENT

THE settlement of the difficulty between the shopmen of the Norfolk & Western and the railroad company, is most pleasing news. The strike came as a great surprise as the relations between the N. & W. and its employees have, as a rule, been characterized by the utmost good will, and there never has been any trouble in reaching an adjustment of matters involving either wages or working conditions. It was generally felt that the recent trouble would be amicably settled, and it was not until the past day or two that the public awoke to the serious nature of the trouble, the placing of embargoes on freight, and the threatened withdrawal of passenger trains, emphasizing the completeness of the tieup.

One of the remarkable features of the strike, was the business-like manner in which it was conducted. There was no display of temper or ill-feeling, there was none of that aggressive or fighting spirit, that so often is in evidence in strikes and that results in riots and destruction of property. The men left their work, they submitted their demands through recognized representatives, they allowed those representatives to talk for them and refrained from general discussion of their grievances. On the other hand the railroad acted as wisely, and both sides left the way open for calm consideration and adjustment of the point at issue. As a result there is a settlement, work is resumed and ill-feeling is at a minimum. There are no sore spots to boil up and make trouble in the future and the good feeling between the railroad and those employed by it.

A SPLENDID CANDIDATE

AN enthusiastic delegation of boosters will journey from Portsmouth to Lima, June 16th to further the candidacy of Mr. George S. Carroll for Commander of the Ohio Division, Sons of Veterans. The good wishes of the community will go with Mr. Carroll and his local adherents and it is hoped that they will be successful in their campaign. Mr. Carroll is one of the business men of Portsmouth whom it is a pleasure to recommend. He is a splendid citizen, always active in every move, ready and willing to do his share. He has been prominent for some years in local Sons of Veterans circles, and would make an ideal Commander of the State Division. We commend him to the delegates who will gather at Lima and assure them they will make no mistake if they elect him.

THE LITTLE END OF THE HORN

SENATOR Lodge looks pitifully small as he emerges from the wrong end of the horn after that frightful blast he blew against the league of nations because copies of the treaty had been seen by him in the hands of New Yorkers, when the privilege of copies of it were denied the senate.

In his note there was ominous refrain of a terrible scandal, involving the American peace commission which in his conception is nothing by and large but one Woodrow Wilson. The climax is a miserable fiasco, but may be even at that Lodge deserves credit for something, just what is not definite. For he later on had the grace to appear before the senate investigating committee and reveal the fact that the copy he had seen was in the hands of Henry P. Davidson, whom he explained had a right to it, because he was the head of the Red Cross, an organization given certain privileges by the treaty, and it was therefore desirable its head should know just what these were and whether or not they were acceptable.

No wonder Lodge's followers dropped the Great Scandal like a hot potato the moment he got through.

A TAINTED PEACH

THE Sunday Times has had few articles surpassing in interest that embraced in the interview with Chauncey Depew, contained in the last issue.

Senator Depew's life has been filled with activity and honors. His popularity as an after dinner orator was equalled by that of no other man and so reliable was he as a speaker that he was generally referred to as the "Peach".

Therefore it is regrettable that, though both interviewer and interviewed rather boast that "The Peach," more than an octogenarian, possesses undimmed the physical vigor and mental vigor of middle life. It is nevertheless a fact, that his closing words show that he has not escaped the penalty that attaches to many years, garrulity and a disposition to revert to early views. Yes, it is a pity, indeed, that so interesting a talk with a generally delightful character should be marred by a certain display of peevishness and a return to that period of partisanship, when no regard was held for the truth as applied to the opposition. We refer, of course, to the Senator's criticism of the war policy of the administration, in which he grows voluble. He complains Republicans were not taken into Wilson's cabinet; whippers of a breakdown in the Republican party was ignored; lamenting the chaotic mail service, the delay in paying soldiers' allowances and all the other things that have irritated the public.

All but whippersnaps of politics recognize the utter unfeasibility of a president, under our system of government, buying a cabinet man opposed to him politically. But every Republican in the senate dead set against Wilson in everything and why? Solely because Wilson is a Democrat. This is so notorious a fact over in Washington, that Republicans there say they never can tell what Lodge's opinion is going to be. They have to wait until he has read the daily papers and found out where Wilson stands and then he'll set himself in the other direction. Washington knows—and "The Peach" knows it equally well—too, that "the demonstrated expert talent of the Republican party was not ignored and dismissed." To the contrary every war hoard, war commission and bureau was bulging full of Republicans from top to bottom, to the almost total exclusion of Democrats and the aircraft and the fleet emergency board were especially notable in this respect. As for "that chaotic postal service," "The Peach" evidently refers to soldiers' mail, which he also knows as fully as anybody, was taken out of the hands of the postal department, run by Democrats, and turned over to the army, as a military measure, on the recommendation of the commanding general, whom the Republicans were just awhile back proposing to nominate for president. By the same token the head of the soldiers' allowance bureau, who has just been given his walking papers, talks much like "The Peach" and therefore must also be a Republican. So, we might go on to the end of several chapters, but enough, lest we become as garrulous as "The Peach," who in this instance is tainted with an early bite of the party bug.

THE WISHING PLANE

WILLIS WINTER

After the children had been lifted out of the fort in which they had kept out they were very careful to keep near Captain Brave and Ladydear. Jack wondered why Booh hadn't found them until Captain Brave reminded him that Booh was wearing his collar then and had to tag along at the end of a strap to which Ladydear was holding.

"There are some pits in the forts so deep that if Booh ever fell into one of them he would never be able to get out alone," said Captain Brave. "They all walked back to the air plane where Captain Brave discovered that we had to get more gasoline and oil and things before they could continue their travels."

While Captain Brave was gone a group of the people in the nearby houses gathered around the airplane. The womenfolk talked with Ladydear, for having been in France during the war, Ladydear could talk French of course.

The little folks suited at Jack and Jane and one of the little girls started both the children by saying, "I can talk English."

"By this time Jeanne, for that was the little girl's name, was crying and so was Jane. Ladydear saw them crying and asked them what the trouble was. Jane told her as quickly as she could and then said, 'Don't you think maybe if we took Jeanne along with us while we are in France we might find her mother or her mother might see her?'" asked Jane.

"Maybe she would," said Ladydear, "and we will ask Captain Brave about it when he comes back."

Jane was sure that Captain Brave would let her take Jeanne along and she was right, so when Captain Brave came back and gave his consent Ladydear and Jane went with Jeanne to Madame Jacques's to make arrangements to take Jeanne along.

"If we don't find Jeanne's mother before we leave France, we will bring Jeanne back to you safe and sound," Ladydear promised.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O'DONNELL.

NEW YORK, June 11.—If prohibition will not the Calumet Nuisance on Broadway—the average diner-out will welcome the day. The Cafe managers have not awakened to the fact that the people are tired of noisy cafes. The whole length of Broadway presents a not a cabaret performance present, but an idea that is new. All the cafes are alike. The same ingredients go for all.

I visited five the other night for experimental purposes. Each had at the stroke of midnight an Oriental dancer. The costumes were nearly alike—beige fragments of mother's head polka. All came from the Far East—Far East Houston street.

Then, O day! The military number. Dressed in blue. A bugle call. The roll of drums. Out of the distance the boom of cannon. Close up of spotlight on a day. And then the girl in the finale. Do not forget her. All come out waving flags and she comes down the center. She wears a star spangled jacket, white tights, a big drum major's cap. She doesn't know what she represents and neither does the audience. But it is a part of the cabaret show.

Then about the time the representative of the leading suspense house in Indianapolis has had his third highball there comes the old-fashioned girl. The back drop is a colonial house with a porch and everything. In the distance flows the Potomac.

She tells how different things were when Grandma was a girl. "They don't have platinum lined limousines, duplex quartered, jazz, auto watches and Y shaped gowns then. O, no, O, no—and now for the last line of the chorus. All together: "Things were so very different when Grandma was a girl!" Isn't that original? Musical comedies and burlesque shows ought to stuff ten years ago. And so the vaudeville. But they thrive in the cabarets. The rough stuff dancers call "deejay" guests up at the ringer seats never know what moment the male dancer is going to throw his dainty partner into a dish of chicken a la king.

In the smarter cafes like the Ritz, Waldorf, Majestic, McManis, Pennsylvania and others the cabaret is a thing of the past. Not even professional dancers do a stunt any more. Now and then there is a singer. But the average smart place has only good jazzless music and dancing.

Speaking of prohibition the mind naturally leaps to the prohibitionist. Nearly every New York newspaper has a standard cartoon type for the prohibitionist. He is pictured as a tall, plug hatted, bespectacled, frock-coated figure. All of which is quite true. The prohibitionist is just as sin-

WHO'S WHO

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

SENATOR POINDEXTER. One of the most rapidly developing personalities in the United States is Miles Poindexter, the junior representative of the state of Washington. He figures prominently in the politics over the League of Nations. In fact, he started the discussion going by a notable address to the senate on February 12, when he made a determined attack upon the proposed covenant.

The senator is also prominent legislation, which promises to be on the order soon, to do away with the unjust discrimination in rates which have prevailed all over the country to the advantage of seaboard cities and the disadvantage of inland communities. As is well known, the railroads in fighting water transportation have given abnormally low rates to tidewater terminals and then assessed their losses upon inland cities by means of excessive tariffs.

Senator Poindexter is a southerner by birth, coming from the state of Tennessee, although he has spent most of his life in the northwest. He was a prosecuting attorney in the state of Washington; later a judge of the superior court; served a term in the lower house of congress, and entered the senate from Washington in 1911.

HUNTINGTON BARBERS AFTER SHORTER HOURS

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., June 14.—Members of the local barbers' local of Huntington are now engaged in negotiating a new agreement and yesterday asked that a public statement of their desires be made. Officials of the local state that the barbers are asking for 74 1/2 hours per week be placed in the agreement, instead of 81 hours, which they state has heretofore been customary in the trade. They add that barbers ordinarily work 33 hours more per week than any other organized craft.

TERMS OF STRIKE SETTLEMENT ARE GIVEN OUT

Shopmen Go Back To Work Monday Morning

At a meeting of N. and W. shopmen in District hall at 9:30 this morning, Chairman O. F. Strong of the local Federation Crafts read the following letter, which was received from Boston yesterday relative to a settlement being made in the strike:

Buffalo, N. Y., June 13, 1919.

To All Crafts N. and W. System, Motive Power Department, Dear Sirs and Brothers:

After an all day conference yesterday at Boston and the same at Buffalo, where all the General Chairman and Brother R. M. Jewell, acting President of the Railway Department of the N. and W. System, and President of the Railway Department of the Buffalo Division, met with the chairman of all crafts of Buffalo, Buffalo and Portsmouth, a decision was reached which was later endorsed by a mass meeting of all members of all crafts of Buffalo as follows:

1st. After hearing the controversy fully explained, Brother R. M. Jewell, acting President of the Railway Department, assured the committee that if this proposition was endorsed and justice is not secured in question involved, he feels sure there will be no limit to the efforts of the Grand Lodge and the Railway Department to make and secure justice.

2nd. That the regular starting time of the first shift, Monday morning, June 10th, 1919, be not less than the time when all employees will return to work. If it is possible for them to do so including laborers, foremen and all employees that are now out.

3rd. That the General Investigation be held in Portsmouth, Monday, June 10th at 10 a. m. with Brother R. M. Jewell, acting President of the Railway Department, M. A. Maher, Vice President of the Buffalo Division, and a representative of the Railroad Administration present, assisting our General Committee.

4th. That in as much as Mr. Barry refused to meet the Committee before the conference will now be held with Mr. A. Maher instead of Mr. Barry.

With the above proposition endorsed by our Committee and endorsed by the entire membership of Buffalo, you are hereby requested to return to work on your regular shift Monday morning and will be advised of the result of the investigation as quickly as possible.

It should be clearly understood that no employees are to return to work before the above appointed time and that then all are to return to work.

P. D. Laudeman, Machinist.
J. E. Shoemaker, Carman.
J. H. O'Brien, Pullman.
W. L. Scott, Blacksmith.
J. C. Pollard, Electrician.
S. C. Feildy, Street Metal Workers.

The contents of the letter evidently pleased the shopmen, as there was much cheering after Mr. Strong had finished reading it.

Before Mr. Strong stepped down off the platform, J. E. Shoemaker, secretary and treasurer of the Federation Crafts of the N. and W. System, entered the hall. The men applauded Mr. Shoemaker, who was formerly inducted in Portsmouth. He was accompanied to this city by the committee that represented the local strikers at yesterday's conference. This committee included Frank Bickett, R. L. Johnson, W. V. Pack, E. T. Jones, Chas. W. Chase and Joe Parke.

At the strikers' headquarters it was stated this morning that N. and W. employees should not return to their work until 9:30 Monday morning.

"This is known as the first shift, and according to our agreement, the men are not to return to their work until this hour Monday morning," the press committee told a Times representative this morning.

Some of the round house employees returned to their work last night, and a few men were back at their posts in the air inspection service.

According to information given out in the shop proper, no men returned to their work there this morning, but all will be back on the job Monday morning.

It was tickled to death to learn that the strike had been settled," Chairman O. F. Strong, of the local Federation Crafts, said shortly after the shopmen met at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in District Hall and learned officially that the strike had been adjusted. Cheers rent the air and smiles on the faces of the men showed plainly their gratification over the news.

"You can say that the trouble was settled satisfactorily to us," Mr. Strong told a Times man last night.

"Our committee was right on the job at the Boston conference, and we feel sure that we will not be disappointed over the manner in which the adjustment was brought about. The men were faithful and loyal, and I want to commend them for their splendid conduct. They were interested in every phase of the trouble and believed they had a just cause in quitting their posts. I never saw a more orderly crowd, and it was a pleasure to work with the men," Mr. Strong said today. "There was no kicking, no discussion and no fiction. We were together to the end. There is no ill-feeling on our part and all the men will return to their posts convinced that right has prevailed, and with no malice toward any one."

Will Lift Embargo
Early Next Week

At division headquarters in East

Portsmouth, it was stated today the freight embargo order probably would be lifted Monday or Tuesday.

It will take several days to get freight service back to its normal status and for this reason the embargo is effective until the first of the week, N. and W. officials here said this morning.

They also stated that the house crew at work last night was practically normal.

The shopmen will hold a special meeting in their hall at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Business of utmost importance is to be considered.

Relative to a settlement of the strike an Associated Press dispatch from Boston last night said:

"Federation of labor officials said that the shop men would return to work pending an investigation of the grievance, the chief of which has been the discharge of certain employees at Wilkes, West Virginia. A board composed of union and railroad administration officials will conduct an inquiry at Wilkes, and at other points of the railroad."

OBITUARY

William Newland.

William Newland, son of George and Mary Beckman Newland, was born near Toledo, Adams county, Ohio, December 6, 1887. Two brothers and one sister preceded him to the grave. A sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Verona, and a brother, Jacob Newland, of Glenora, Oklahoma, survive.

When William was a young man the family moved to Soloto county. He became familiar with several iron furnaces in Lawrence and Soloto counties where he was employed for many years.

On October 27, 1918, he was united in marriage to Susan Lewis. A little more than 38 years of happy wedded life followed, until on January 10, 1919, the faithful and loving wife went to join the two daughters who died in infancy.

The youngest son, Henry Lewis Newland, was among the first victims of the influenza epidemic in the fall of 1918. The two other sons, James and George, died of typhoid fever, together with seven grand children, and one great grandchild are left to mourn the loss of their parents and grand parents.

His wife and wife united with the church at Vernon in 1897. Each remained faithful members of the church militant until called to the church triumphant.

The death of the farm except the last year and a half of the husband's life. After the wife answered the higher call, the husband made his home with his son in Portsmouth. Following a several weeks' visit with old friends and relatives he was stricken with pneumonia and on June 7, 1919, he went to claim the reward of the faithful Christian.

A wide circle of old and new friends together with many relatives will remember Mr. and Mrs. Newland as among the best of old couples in the community.

Funeral services were held at Vernon church on June 9 with Revs. John Yelley and William Shepley conducting the last rites. Interment in the Vernon cemetery.

W. G. Warden

Death at 7 o'clock Saturday morning claimed W. G. Warden, the final summons coming at his home, 117 Second street, after an extended illness. He was a sufferer from tuberculosis, and had been seriously ill for three months.

Mr. Warden was born in Ripley, being a son of Albert and Ollie Warden. He was fifty-two years of age at last. The deceased was a carpenter and was considered one of the best workmen in this line in the city.

Just two weeks ago, Frank Warden, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Warden, was claimed by death. The beloved wife, Jennie Warden, and one son, Albert, aged five, survive to mourn the death of husband and father. Two brothers, John W. Warden and Henry Warden, and one sister, Miss Nellie Warden, of this city, survive. The deceased had a host of friends who will be sorry to learn of his death.

The funeral will be held from the home some time Monday.

Astonished Daddy.

June is having some difficulty in settling upon the proper title for her father. The other day she was playing with one of his collars when she tore it. Just then she heard him coming upstairs, and rushing to the top step called in distressful tones: "Oh, daddy, I have torn my hubble's collar!"

The Roman "Teepee."

The "denarius" translated "penny" in each of the four gospels was a principal silver coin of a Roman coinage. From the parable of the laborers in the vineyard it would seem that a denarius was the ordinary pay for a day's labor (Matt. 20:13).

Child Bitten By Dog

Allen Adams, Jr., four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adams of O'Brien street near Tenth was bitten on the right arm by a small pointer dog about four o'clock Friday afternoon while playing with several other boys in the alley in the rear of the Adams house.

The dog succeeded in inflicting several scratches on the arm near the elbow and punctured the skin with one tooth near the elbow. Mr. L. J. Locke and Dr. W. D. Micklethwait attended the child.

Officer Lewis was called to the scene but the dog which was said to belong to Mrs. Mary Bowen on Scott street could not be found. Mrs. Bowen is interested about the killing of her dog saying that it was a pet. Mr. and Mrs. Adams called on Sheriff Ernest Kiley to see about having the dog killed and its head sent to Columbus to see if it is afflicted with rabies. The dog will probably be located today and killed.

The child is suffering no ill effects from the attack of the animal.

Candidates File Their Petitions

Brickworker Hurt

Henry Altman, young South Webster brick worker, suffered the fracture of several ribs in a Fall Friday. He was wheeling brick from a kiln to a car and slipped on the steel run to the car and fell heavily against the side of the car, crushing several ribs. Dr. A. Stevens attended the injured man.

Hot Race Expected For City Offices

The entry lists have closed and the candidates that will contest for the nomination for the various municipal offices in the August primaries are off in the race. The Blue Triangle for filing nominating petitions expired Friday at midnight.

On the Republican side there will be a number of contests leading off with Charles W. Wilson and Dr. W. H. Jones, both of whom aspire to be the chief executive of the city, while there is a three-corner fight on for Lou Zanker's job in the auditor's office between W. L. H. Jack, Donald N. Maguire and Earl Chandler, while no less than six men certified in as candidates for the three seats in council to be elected at-large as follows: James E. Starlin, Emory I. Riekey, George M. Osborn, Howard K. Moore, Howard Kuyser and Charles Schirrmann.

Council—First Ward—A. H. Weger, Earl Helt.
Second Ward—Alva J. Chabot, Charles E. Monk.
Third Ward—James G. Dwyer, William Keller, Harold Rice.
Council—Fourth Ward—R. Frank Bennett.

Of the ward councilmen, at 11, Westport will have an opponent in the First ward, Earl Helt, while Alva J. Chabot and Charles E. Monk will contest for the seat in council from the Second and James G. Dwyer, William Keller and Harold Rice will fight for the councilman's job in the Third. R. Frank Bennett will have no opposition for the nomination in the Fourth for council.

Attorney William R. Sprague and Attorney Alex C. Woodrow will fight it out for the nomination for Municipal Judge, while George W. Vandevort was named for vice mayor without opposition, and Solicitor S. A. Schell and Treasurer A. J. Fisher will have no opposition for their several terms.

The Democrats named a strong ticket with William N. Gableman, former city auditor, as their standard bearer, and the entire lineup will have no opposition in the primary.

The candidates that will go to the wire follow:

Democratic Ticket

For Mayor—William N. Gableman.
Vice Mayor—A. D. Traxel.
Auditor—Robinson Farmer.
Treasurer—Charles Summers.
Municipal Judge—Howard K. Moore.
Council at Large—St. Stratus Jacob.
President—C. W. Turner.
Council—First Ward—Earl Helt.
Second Ward—John E. Wilhelms.

"Millions for defense but not one cent for tribute" is attributed to Charles Calhoun Pinckney. When John Jay, in 1796, made his famous treaty with England which threatened to involve the United States in war with France, the attorney would not receive the American ambassador, but indicated that the matter might be settled by the payment of a certain sum. Pinckney indignantly answered with the above phrase. It is said, however, that long afterward Pinckney was asked if he had ever said it, and he replied: "No, my answer was not a flourish like that, but simply, 'Not a penny, not a penny.'"

When John Jay, in 1796, made his famous treaty with England which threatened to involve the United States in war with France, the attorney would not receive the American ambassador, but indicated that the matter might be settled by the payment of a certain sum. Pinckney indignantly answered with the above phrase. It is said, however, that long afterward Pinckney was asked if he had ever said it, and he replied: "No, my answer was not a flourish like that, but simply, 'Not a penny, not a penny.'"

Child Bitten By Dog

Allen Adams, Jr., four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adams of O'Brien street near Tenth was bitten on the right arm by a small pointer dog about four o'clock Friday afternoon while playing with several other boys in the alley in the rear of the Adams house.

The dog succeeded in inflicting several scratches on the arm near the elbow and punctured the skin with one tooth near the elbow. Mr. L. J. Locke and Dr. W. D. Micklethwait attended the child.

Officer Lewis was called to the scene but the dog which was said to belong to Mrs. Mary Bowen on Scott street could not be found. Mrs. Bowen is interested about the killing of her dog saying that it was a pet. Mr. and Mrs. Adams called on Sheriff Ernest Kiley to see about having the dog killed and its head sent to Columbus to see if it is afflicted with rabies. The dog will probably be located today and killed.

The child is suffering no ill effects from the attack of the animal.

Germans May Get The Allies' Reply Monday

PARIS, Friday, June 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Confidence was expressed tonight by the British, French and American delegates to the peace conference that the reply to the German counter proposals will be completed and delivered to the Germans Monday, with a provision that the Germans will be given two days in which to answer. With three days of grace before the armistice is suspended, there will be a resumption of hostilities Saturday, June 21, if the Germans refuse to sign.

SMALL POWERS PROTEST
The indignation of the council of four to submit the revised German treaty to a plenary session of the conference before sending it to the great powers is, however, causing another protest from the small powers, which is now being called another plenary session which would cause further delay. The small powers are dissatisfied with assurances that the change made in the treaty are slight and many of the delegates are insisting on an opportunity to consider the treaty fully before it is presented to the ratifying peace mission.

OFFER PROTEST
PARIS, June 13.—(By the Associated Press)—The proposal that the five great powers undertake to guarantee the territorial limits of liberated states in eastern Europe as established by the peace treaties in return for the acceptance by the latter of stipulations respecting the rights of racial, language and religious minorities has, it is understood, been submitted to the council of four. The guarantee would be independent of general provisions for the maintenance of the territorial status quo in Article 19 of the covenant of the League of Nations, and provide the definite security which some European states do not expect from the workings of the league.

NO DELIVERY UNTIL NEXT WEEK
PARIS, June 14.—(By the Associated Press)—The council of five continued the work of editing the revised peace treaty this morning, at the same time enabling Baron Makino, the Japanese representative, to acquaint himself with the document. The work is nearly completed and it is believed the treaty will go to the revision committee late tonight. It is said that it will be printed and ready for delivery to the Germans Monday or Tuesday.

It is the present plan of the council to resume consideration of the Austrian terms Monday. Representatives of Turkey will be received Tuesday.

If no other developments arise, President Wilson probably will make his trip to Brussels between Wednesday and the expiration of the German time limit.

Some modifications were made by the council yesterday in the labor

Foch Sends Ultimatum To Germans

COBLENZ, Friday, June 13.—(By the Associated Press)—An ultimatum demanding the immediate continuation of the movement of Polish troops across Germany has been sent to the German government by Marshal Foch, according to dispatches received here from Spa.

Orders were issued at Berlin several days ago to hold up the Polish troop trains. One was held at Coblenz, another at Trier, two at Lim and eight in the interior of Germany. The transfer of Polish troops from France to Poland began about six weeks ago and was due to be completed on June 15.

A Berlin dispatch received on Friday night stated that Marshal Foch, chairman of the German armistice commission at Spa, had written General Duppont, chief of the French mission in Berlin, declaring that Poland intended to distribute two divisions of General Haller's troops along the frontier. It was said that Foch had protested that this was opposed to the terms of the armistice and that unless Poland abandoned her purpose, Germany would be compelled to suspend the movement of the Polish army across Germany.

The existing labor situation in various countries, coupled with clever German tactics, had resulted in this part of the treaty becoming one of the principal points of attack in the counter proposals. The situation caused a lengthy discussion, which resulted in certain modifications in the convention.

Gigantic Labor Demonstration In Washington

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Labor's protest against prohibition in so far as it applies to light wines and beer was brought before congress late today in a demonstration, participated in by a throng estimated by leaders to number 100,000 to 150,000 representatives and members of union organizations from this and scores of other cities throughout the country.

Led by Samuel Gompers president of the American Federation of Labor, who with hundreds of other delegates from the annual convention of the delegates were to assemble on the Union Station plaza and march to the capitol steps. The meeting was to open with a salute to the flag as a mark, it is understood, of the "anti-Prohibition and pro-American sentiment" of the workers.

Speeches by members of congress and by Mr. Gompers were to follow the flag raising ceremonies. Union officials announced the purpose of the demonstration, which was to be participated in by representatives of labor in every state, as to give members of congress a visual appreciation of labor's strength in demanding repeal of the war time prohibition legislation as it relates to beer and wines.

Speakers by members of congress and by Mr. Gompers were to follow the flag raising ceremonies.

CHINESE FACING SERIOUS CRISIS

PEKING, June 11.—(By the Associated Press)—In consequence of difficulties created by the popular movement against pro-Japanese members of the government, the cabinet has resigned and President Hsu Shih Chang has also indicated his intention to quit office.

It is anticipated that parliament will decline to accept the president's resignation. This would amount virtually to a vote of confidence in the chief executive, which is needed to strengthen his hand in his fight against the militarists.

Strikes throughout the country continue. Railroad traffic is being impeded and the situation in China is awkward.

RAILROAD OPERATORS AID STRIKE

CHICAGO, June 14.—The commercial telegraphers' strike now in its fourth day, was given valuable assistance, according to union officials, through the order, effective today, to railroad telegraphers throughout the country to decline to handle messages from the Western Union and Postal Companies. Officials of the telegraph companies said refusal of railroad operators to handle commercial messages would not interfere materially with wire traffic, as only a small part of their business was handled at railroad offices.

Union officials asserted that more men were added to the ranks of the strikers during the last 24 hours, while the company officials claimed that "quite a number" who walked out have returned to work.

In connection with the proposed strike of more than 100,000 electrical workers during the last 24 hours, Charles F. Ford, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, today said:

"The lid comes off on Monday unless conferences between representatives of the electrical workers and officials of the companies bring about a settlement. Twenty-eight settlements have been brought about in various parts of the country and more than 11,000 men and women will not be included in the strike call."

OPENING STOCKS

NEW YORK, June 14.—Liquidation of speculative accounts and offerings by professional traders were the dominant factors in initial dealings on the stock exchange today. Several of the stocks which figured conspicuously in yesterday's drop lost a point or more while a few others reflected temporary support, notably General Motors and Mexican Petroleum, U. S. Steel sold off 5/8 to 101 3/4; but the bid will be on hand at the park. Green's recent steel suffered greater decline, but better in some instances, but buying operations were conducted with caution.

PICNIC TODAY

The First Presbyterian Sunday school picnic will be held this afternoon at Millbrook park. Special cars have been provided for the Sabbath school pupils, their parents and members of the congregation. All are invited to join in their annual outing of the church and school. The special excursion will leave Second and Court streets at one o'clock and will make stops along the line whenever necessary. All getting on these cars will get transportation free. Free ice cream will be on hand at the park. Games and contests will be the feature of the picnic. The return trip will be made about 7:30 o'clock.

FLIERS ARE AGAIN DELAYED

ST. JOHNS, June 14.—Astronauts again held up the start of the Vickers-Vimy plane on its proposed trans-Atlantic flight scheduled for this evening. If the wind shifts within a few hours, the aviators probably will "hop off" this afternoon.
